WARNING PROCEDURES

1st Game Behavioural Technical Foul/s:

The MUVJBL will send an email to the association contact informing them of the relevant persons first violation.

2nd Game Behavioural Technical Foul/s:

The MUVJBL will send an email to the association contact informing them of the relevant persons second violation. relevant persons will have 24 hours (unless granted an extension by the MUVJBL Administration) to sign and return the email acknowledging that any further behavioural technical fouls will result in an automatic suspension.

3rd and further Games Behavioral Technical Foul/s:

The MUVJBL will notify the association contact that the relevant person has been suspended from the MUVJBL Competition and will provide the association contact with their return to competition date.

PROCESS FOR RECORDING TECHNICAL FOULS

The MUVJBL Administration will supply each venue with a Technical Foul Jot form. Copies of the Jot Form must be kept courtside for Referees to use when no internet is available

Associations are to inform referees that if they give a relevant person any technical fouls, they must fill in the Technical Foul Jot Form online or complete at the end of the game and hand it to the Venue Supervisor, so forms can be submitted to the MUVJBL at the end of the night with all relevant documentation for the venue. If the relevant paperwork is not received by MUVJBL from the Association by noon on Monday following the game, Associations will be fined.

An explanation of why the coach/assistant coach/player received a technical foul and how many technical fouls they awarded is required on The Technical Foul Jot Form.

If a coach/assistant coach/player is also reported by the referee, then this must be indicated on the Technical Foul Jot Form and the official report form MUST be sent to the MUVJBL.

APPEALING BEHAVIOURAL TECHNICAL FOUL OR PENALTY

Coaches/assistant coaches/players who receive a behavioural technical foul have the right to appeal to the MUVJBL Administration for a review of their technical foul record by close of business on the next business day. This must be emailed by their association contact or delegate. Response to a review request will be advised within 48 business hours of the request being received.

If a relevant person is suspended, the association contact or delegate may email the MUVJBL within 24 hours of receiving the penalty notification to appeal the suspension, this must include the $50 application fee. This will then be passed on to the Junior Representative Commission Appeals Committee for review. The Appeals Committee decision is final.
